General Election – Thursday 8th June

Dear Parents,

As you will no doubt be aware the Prime Minister has declared Thursday 8th June 2017 as the date upon which the General Election will take place. Gillibrand Primary School is a polling station and unfortunately we will need to close on that day.

I am sorry for any inconvenience caused and I am aware we only return from our half term on Wednesday 7th June but as you will appreciate this matter is not within school's control.

Yours sincerely,

Ashley Clayton
Headteacher
